Jason Nodjomian asked if everyone had read the minutes. Caroline stated that her first name should be changed to read Caroline vs Carol. Jason Nodjomian asked for a motion to approve the minutes as annotated. Caroline Schreck moved approval as annotated. Annie-James Walsh seconded. Discussion followed. Council Vote: Schreck-yes; Marocchini-yes; Nodjomian-yes; Walsh-yes; Toledo-yes. Motion Passed

Old Business:

Tutoring Project:

Councilman Nodjomian stated that the only update regarding the project is he has had a discussion with Sheila Bishop, the head librarian. She stated there is no problem in using the space and agreed to sign off on hours regarding credit for community service hours involving the tutoring program. Councilman Nodjomian stated that if necessary we can give that authority to some of her assistants. This will take care of signing off hours for tutors to save time by not seeking signatures from him or Mr Doucet Christine stated that she is still working on a sign up sheet. Discussion followed regarding a meeting with Mr Gore and the process for establishing the sign up sheets for those who want to volunteer to be a tutor and those who require tutoring.

Community Clean-up Project:

Discussion centered around it being a successful event. Christine reported that 17 volunteers showed up for the clean-up. They were expecting more stating that they had to change the starting time at 9:30 AM because of a notification issue with Key Club. Christine stated that the focused was mostly within the Triangle. She felt the cleanup project was a success. Chairman Nodjomian agreed that it was a successful event especially since most of you know the routine and you receive great exposure from the residents who see you out there and being involved. Christine stated the Chick filet biscuits were good, Subway Sandwiches were good and appreciated the sponsorship from Café' Liquid. Discussion followed regarding sending letters of thanks to our sponsors. .

New Business:

It was decided to discuss the Membership Drive, the Presidential Election Program, and the Mock Trial at a later date since key members were not present.

The meeting adjourned at 6:35 PM
